HUGE MAIL ROBBERY IS UNEARTHED

Three Chicago Men Held For Stealing $240,000 From A Federal Reserve Bank Ship-ment.

One Postoffice Clerk Involved. Nearly $100,000 of Amount Is Recovered.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, September 23.—Three men, one of them John Wejda, a clerk in the Chicago post office, who is said to have planned the robbery, were arrested here today, charged with stealing $240,000 of a shipment of $415,000 last Thursday from the Federal Reserve Bank here to the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, at Whiting, Indiana.

Of the stolen funds, $93,620 was recovered. The remainder, according to an alleged confession of two of the men, was abandoned at the outskirts of Chicago when the automobile in which they were returning from Whiting broke down.

Chicago detectives unearthed the postal robbery when two of the men, Leo and Walter Phillips, were arrested in connection with the robbery of a saloon, in which approximately $500 was obtained.

The officers at first believed they had stumbled on a big bank robbery when one found $20,000 in one of the men's pockets.

Questioning developed details of the entire program, according to the officers.

STEEL STRIKE TO BE PROBED BY THE SENATE

Investigation Begins Thursday And Leaders First Called.

Kenyon Offers Resolution To Make Effort To Settle The Walkout.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, September 23.—Investigation of the steel strike by the Senate Labor Committee was ordered today. A resolution by Senator Kenyon, providing for the inquiry and authorizing a report as to whether any federal action could be taken was adopted without a roll call.

He said it was proposed to call leaders representing both employers and employees to Washington in an effort to determine the cause of the strike and suggest remedial action.

He announced the first witness would be Chairman Gary of the United States Steel Corporation and the second John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the National Committee organizing the steel workers.

Iron Moulders Meet to Decide Question of a Sympathetic Strike.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, September 23.—The second day of the great struggle between the labor unions and the United States Steel Corporation opened with the question of extent to which the industry had been affected still uncertain, confused as it is by the conflicting claims by leaders on both sides.

That the industry has been gravely crippled in the great centers of Pittsburg, Chicago and Youngstown was certain and reports recorded several gains for the strikers.

In the Pittsburg district several of the Carnegie plants were closed and the Braddock and Rankin plants of the American Steel and Wire Company closed down today.

In the Chicago district similar conditions prevail. Nearly all plants, including Gary and Hammond, either were closed today or operating at greatly reduced capacity. Strike leaders claim 75 per cent of the 90,000 workers were out and that in Gary the percentage was 95 per cent.

Steel company officials refused to concede a higher percentage than twenty.

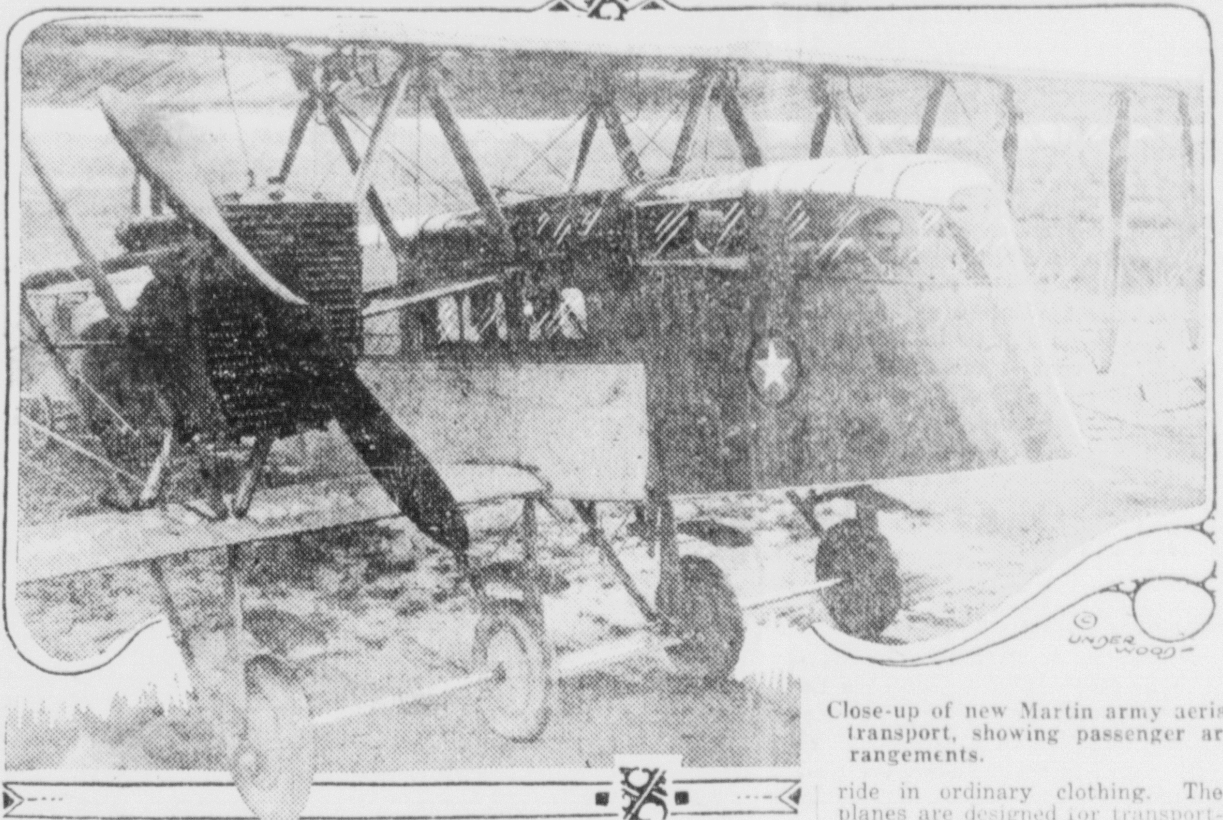

The possibility of the spread of the strike was more threatening today. At the Bethlehem works of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation where 35,000 men are employed the union leaders announced no reply had been received to their request for a conference with company officials and that preparations were being completed for calling out the workers.

At Cincinnati the executive board of the International Iron Moulders Union is in session and will decide what action will be taken by that body.

Rioting which broke out at the close of the first day was resumed at different places this morning. The known casualties are one man dead, three seriously wounded and scores more or less severely wounded. The fatality occurred at Ferrell, Pa. Every mill in Ferrell was closed today but this did not prevent renewal of violence in which eleven persons were wounded and many shots fired.

Simultaneously with the outbreak of rioting at Ferrell a pitched battle occurred at New-

FEAR SERIOUS WAR MAY COME FROM REBEL FORCES IN FIUME

Uneasiness Growing In The Peace Conference Circles Over The Dalmatian Question

PARIS, September 23.—(Associated Press)—Uneasiness is growing in peace conference circles in regard to the situation in Fiume. It is feared the movement started by Captain d'Annunzio may spread to other parts of the Dalmatian coast and result in the occupation of other towns located in districts where the majority of inhabitants are Jugo-Slavs.

The Jugo-Slav delegation here is extremely apprehensive and the situation is regarded as one which conceivably might develop into a serious war.

Armed Deputies On Way To Restore Order If Necessary.

(By Associated Press.)

Oklahoma City, September 23.—All efforts to reach Drumright, Okla., where rioting was reported last night in telephone messages failed today through lack of telephone or telegraph facilities.

Telephone and telegraph companies say their wires have been taken over or cut by the mob, which is demanding the resignation of Drumright city officials, according to last night's telephone report.

Telephone messages from Clinton, Oklahoma, today said that the Clinton chief of police has started for Drumright with several deputies, following a request from persons who report that the mob was shooting recklessly in the streets.

TWO MILLS RUN QUIET REIGNING AT YOUNGSTOWN

(By Associated Press.)

Youngstown, O., September 23.—Quiet reigned throughout the Mahoning Valley last night and today, where union officials claim approximately 55,000 men are on strike in the steel industry.

Only two of the big steel companies were making any attempt to operate this morning. They are the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Company and the Carnegie Steel Company. Both companies admit they are badly crippled.

COUNT BERCHTOLD HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR STARTING WAR

Minutes From The Archives of Former Austro-Hungarian Government Made Public.

NEW SERBIA COULD NOT MEET DEMANDS

Planned to Compensate Italy And Rumania After Taking Up Arms Against Serbs.

(By Associated Press.)

Vienna, September 23.—There were made public today from the archives of the former Austro-Hungarian government, minutes of the meeting of the Privy Council on July 7, 1914, at which it was virtually decided to begin war on Serbia.

According to this publication, the Ministry of Austria-Hungary, especially Count von Berchtold, the then Foreign Minister, was solely responsible for the outbreak of hostilities.

The minutes show meeting to have opened with Count von Berchtold pleading for an immediate resort to arms against Serbia, stating that Italy and Rumania "could be compensated afterward for not having been consulted beforehand."

Count Tisza, the Hungarian Premier, opposed the war, demanding that diplomatic action be taken first, and then that an ultimatum of an acceptable nature be sent.

Finally a resolution was adopted that such far-reaching demands be made of Serbia that she could not fulfill them, and a way would be open to resort to arms.

OFFICIALS SAY STRIKERS HAVE NOT MADE GAIN

(By Associated Press.)

Cleveland, O., September 23.—Claims of union officials that 25,000 men were idle here today in the strike of steel workers, an increase of 5,000 over estimates of yesterday, was disputed by steel mill officials today, who deny that the walkout is as complete as union officials claim and contend that actual strikers do not number more than 40 per cent of the union figures.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, September 23.—Republican leaders decided today to defer for several days consideration of amendments to peace treaty, proposing equal voting strength in the league of nations between the United States and Great Britain. Formal reading of the treaty will be continued for a time.

Senator Johnson, who has been speaking in the middle west against the league of nations, returned today. The question of dealing with Senate demonstrations during debate so was discussed at Senate conferences today.

VALUABLE TRACT AT CITY'S EDGE CHANGES HANDS

An important land transaction, which promises to mean much for the future of the northeastern part of the city, was concluded Monday afternoon, when the Mrs. Laura Shoop property of 44 acres, located along Lewis street, bounded on the south by Gregg street and extending northward to some distance beyond the B. & O. railroad, was purchased by Hon. Harry P. Brown, through the agency of Chas. Gerstner.

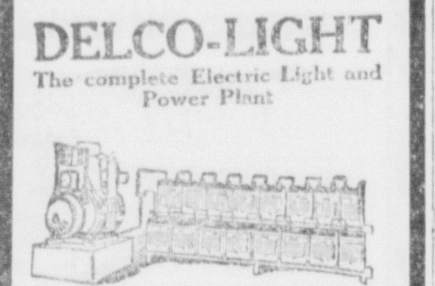

A large portion of the tract is located within the city limits, and the possibilities of platting the tract and opening up a new addition are considered exceptionally good, as a paved street leading up town comes to one edge of the tract, and the facilities for extending streets across the tract are unusually good.

The tract also is especially well adapted to good drainage and is higher than a large portion of the city.

Mr. Brown has not announced his future plans relative to the tract.

Mrs. Martin Believes in Merits of One Medicine Since Taking Trutona.

Ironton, Ohio, September 22. — "I had taken so many medicines without getting relief I had become disgusted, but I think I have found in Trutona a preparation that is going to restore my health," Mrs. M. L. Martin, a well known Ironton woman of 314 Railroad Avenue, said recently.

"Stomach disorder was my main trouble. My appetite was poor and I was usually constipated. I was often bothered with headaches, too; I had become weak and so nervous I couldn't sleep at night. Always after meals, I'd feel so bloated I didn't know whether I could stand it.

"But I feel better all over, since taking Trutona. My appetite is so much better and my food seems to taste better than it has for some time. I sleep better at night now than I have for a long time. I've gotten a great deal of relief from the constipation, too, and the former headaches have not bothered me for some now time. I can recommend Trutona to any of my friends and I feel sure it will help anyone who is suffering as I was."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Washington C. H. at Frank Christopher's. adv.

The Hospital

The movement to provide for meeting a real and a vital need of this prosperous community of ours is taking form. Fayette county is soon now going to have what it has long felt the need of—a real hospital.

This community, usually so quick to feel and appreciate its needs, so abundantly able to provide itself with the community necessities, has been treating itself unfairly and has, too long already, neglected a plain duty.

Providing adequate hospital facilities is the business of every individual in the county. No one is so prosperous; no one is so self-sufficient that he can escape accidents or sickness. No one of us knows, no matter what our position is, when some accident or some crisis, sickness of ourselves or of some member of the family near and dear to us, will make the hospital indispensable.

If our own life, the life of loved one, or our neighbor's life, be we princes or paupers, are to be saved when the time of urgency comes we must be ready. The possession of financial means does not always meet the demands of the crisis. There are times when to carry a patient to distant points where hospital facilities are available means death. Many lives would have been lost but for the limited facilities we now have, but we have long outgrown our present arrangements. We must meet present conditions.

Another thing. We must get the right idea of this at the outset.

We must provide adequate hospital facilities for ourselves and our families.

To do so is no act of charity; no donation for someone else's good. The business men might as well be without insurance and fire-fighting apparatus, the farmer without seed or farm machinery as without adequate hospital facilities.

The proposal is a business proposition—pure and simple—and selfish too if one chooses to look at it in that light. Perhaps some time the county's new hospital will be a profitable investment to the stockholders, but no promise need be made on that score now.

The individual and community insurance the new hospital carries with it—a paid-up policy for every man and every family—is the big return on the investment.

We should, all of us, clearly understand too that it is not for the benefit of someone else. It is for each one of us and for each member of our families.

It is the biggest thing proposed for Fayette county for a long time and one that has been "passed up" too long. We need sewers and streets in the city, we need roads and school houses in the rural districts, but we need nothing so much as we need a real adequate hospital.

If any citizen will sit down and canvass the present conditions, the present demand, and take it right home to himself, review the past and take a look into the future it will clear away any clouds resulting from a lack of proper understanding or from any misunderstanding of any individual.

It is a big chance to meet a big need. It must be done and this county is too sensible to go back on its own interest. This is our own affair.

Germany's Status

Since reporters and correspondents from the allied nations have been able to travel about in the interior of Germany following the signing of the peace treaty and the publication of their reports on conditions, we are beginning to see the German people and the German nation in a different light.

All writers are unanimous in the opinion that Germany emerges from the war in a vigorous financial and industrial condition in comparison with all other European nations. Germany, they assert, is the same well organized, well disciplined nation of sixty-five million, or more people, which sprang at the throat of the civilized world five years ago in an effort to dominate every nation and people.

Germany is uncrushed and unrepentant, abundantly able to meet every demand which the allies have seen fit to make upon her and still maintain her place as one of the greatest powers in the world and a competitor for the commerce of the world, as strong as she was before the war.

Germany, it is asserted, enters upon peace as a competitor for trade on as good or even a better footing than the nations victorious over her on the field of battle.

Most unpleasant of all, these observers assert that Germany is united and complacent while her allies are divided and quarreling over inconsequential matters.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THE KISS THAT I FORGOT

I'm sorry for the many things
Unkind that I have done;
Each day new aches my memory brings
By starlight and by sun.
Ah, could I live again my years
'Twould be the dearest bliss
From eyes I loved the falling tears
To wipe, and tell them this.

But, oh, the things I did not do
That easily I might—
They haunt me, yes, they haunt me,
too,

From morning until night;
And, in the dark, wet-eyed, I sigh,
Yet naught can white the blot—
I cannot give, until I die,
The kiss that I forgot.

Wounds From Rusty
Nails Dangerous

Serious results, through blood poisoning, often occur from scratches, cuts or wounds from rusty nails or other metal. Don't run this danger. Protect yourself by having a bottle of Houstonia always at hand.

Dean McKillip, well-known farmer of Clark Co., Ohio, says: "I stepped on a rusty nail which extended halfway through my foot. I applied Houstonia to the wound and bandaged the foot. In a short time the pain got easier. After five days I did not limp and the wound healed nicely. People who use Houstonia for such injuries do not need to fear blood poisoning."

Houstonia (The Original Jones' Liniment) may be freely applied to open cuts, sores or burns without fear. It soothes while it heals. At your druggist. 25c, 50c and $1.00 sizes. Be sure you get the genuine House-tone-eah with Dr. Jones' picture on the yellow wrapper. The Dr. J. C. Jones Co., S. Charleston, O. —Adv.

CENSUS TAKING
BEGINS JANUARY 2

On January 2nd, 1920, Uncle Sam will begin the job of counting the men, women and children within the territory. It will require 100,000 persons to do the work and they will be busy for months. Every ten years, under the terms of the constitution, the people of the United States are counted, and next year's will be the fourteenth. There is considerable speculation as to what the actual number of inhabitants will be, but some good guessers estimate the number at 120,000,000.

So far the arrangements for the census work in Fayette county have not been made, but it is expected that within a short time plans will be completed.

ENGLISH POLICE
STRIKERS LOSE

(By Associated Press.)

London, August 30.—(By Mail)—Sir Neville Macready, head of the Metropolitan police, is determined that none of the constables who recently went on strike will be reinstated as long as he is at the head of the force.

More than a thousand of the men lost their places, and their pensions, when they struck, and now that the strike has failed many of them have applied for reinstatement.

Sir Neville says that every man who actually refused duty has been dismissed, and not one has been reinstated. He and the Home Secretary, Mr. Shortt, hold that men who strike are unfitted to be policemen.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Mr. Wilson Woodrow in the Ohio State Journal gives a very valuable "tip" to the girl who craves popularity when she says, "It's a good plan to shut the big 'I' up in the closet and take a genuine interest in the little 'you'."

No, I have never met her," I overheard one woman saying to another, "What is she like?"

"Oh, very nice," replied her companion in a voice without any thrill of enthusiasm. "Too much big 'I' and little 'You,' though."

The phrase caught my fancy. It expresses so perfectly a certain type of person. I suppose it is common usage, but I never happened to have heard it before.

At once I mentally added a new chapter to that book I am going to write some day, "People Who Have Bored Me."

I could visualize that woman perfectly. Everything she possesses clothes, furniture, husband, children, cat, dog or chicken, is a little better than the things which belong to others—for the sole reason that it is hers. She takes it for granted that everything she says, does, thinks or feels is of more importance than the sayings, doings, thoughts or feelings of other people, "the lesser breeds without the law."

There are a lot of her parading up and down the world, sunning themselves in their own favor.

If she has a new hat, although it may be the season for new hats and they are as thick as blackberries, in August, she holds you up while she explains what a rare and precious acquisition it is.

You may have on a new hat yourself, that you do not think is so bad, but she passes it over in silence and with a pitying glance.

If she is with one or a dozen she always improves the occasion by delivering a lecture on where she has been and what she has been doing. No one cares a straw, but she keeps right on.

The unquarable egoist, there is only one thing which holds her interest for a minute—I, Me, Myself.

She has a fixed idea that she is "not like other girls," and she discusses her impulses and emotions, her peculiarities of mind and heart, until the poor tired listener wishes that she would go out and hang her self or that he could perform that job for her.

Most of us have symptoms and troubles more or less, but when we seek diversion it is to forget them, and how gladly we welcome the person in whose conversation the big "I" does not continually lurk, ready to pop up and frighten us out of our enjoyment.

That big "I" is a terrible tyrant. He shuts you up in a little prison of yourself, away from sympathy and understanding and friendship and all of the things that make life worthwhile.

The War achievement of American women now being mobilized for the third Red Cross roll call, Nov. 2 to 11, is revealed in the announcement from American Red Cross national headquarters that in two years they produced near $100,000,000 worth of surgical articles and garments. During the 24 months ending April 20 last, figures show Red Cross chapter workers turned out 375,174,825 articles, the estimated value of which was $98,148,359.

It is estimated that 8,000,000 women and girls participated and it is among them that the Red Cross is now recruiting the millionworkers who will assist in the enrollment of members for 1923 during the 10 days ending armistice day. Those women affiliated with over 3700 chapters toiled early and late in home and Red Cross workroom throughout the land, and to their efforts was largely attributed the morale maintained in allied countries, in addition to the cheer and comfort their labor carried to the American troops.

There were produced by the Lake Division (Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky) 26,010,749 articles, valued at $9,169,592. Chapter production was not the only activity of these women for they were tireless in the Red Cross campaign and hospital work the two war fund campaigns and Christmas roll calls.

The ceremony was performed at the Church of All Souls by Rev. Leon A. Harvey.

What the USL Service Station Really Is

The U S L Service Station is more than a place where new batteries are offered for sale. It is a place where battery users may safely stop and leave their battery troubles.

We have new batteries (and they are good ones, too) to sell, but only when they are needed.

Our first thought is to render expert service to our patrons, helping them to get the maximum of service from the battery they already have, whatever the make.

Then when it becomes necessary for them to replace their old battery they have confidence in what we say about new ones. Ours is a real service station. Not merely a store where batteries are kept and sold.

Although the influenza has not made its official appearance in this city or surrounding district, preventive measures are being taken by the majority of the citizens to ward off a second visitation of the dreaded epidemic. Local doctors have fortified themselves and are ready to cope with it in the most up-to-date manner.

Since the great outbreak of influenza last fall when thousands died partly because of improper treatment and because of the fact that the right methods of dealing with the plague were not known, the medical profession has made great strides in the treatment and it is thought by local physicians that a repetition of the "flu" would not be so disastrous as the first outbreak.

Should the disease appear again in this city it is pointed out that the need for more adequate facilities would be strikingly apparent. It has been learned that the best method of dealing with the disease is to have the patient under the direct care of trained nurses aided by physicians. With the facilities of caring for inmates at the present time at the local hospital it would be impossible to do this with any great number of patients and doubtless many lives would be lost because of improper care. The last epidemic could have been combated much more effectively with adequate hospital facilities and the lack at that time was cruelly felt. Many affected persons were compelled to go without medical attention and nursing because there were not enough physicians and nurses to look after the widely scattered patients.

It is unnecessary to assert, it is an absolute necessity in the treatment of such diseases not only for the afflicted but to secure that isolation so essential to prevent a spread of the epidemic to have adequate hospital facilities.

DEMETRAL BEATS CLIFF BINCKLEY

At the Chamber of Commerce in Columbus Monday night Demetral, the Greek wrestling champion of Chicago, won the decision over Cliff Binckley, the champion of Ohio, after an hour of hard wrestling. Demetral earned the referee's decision because of his greater activity in the ring.

The match is of interest to local fans because of the fact that Binckley will meet Tom Hillery, the Washington strong boy, in this city next Monday evening at the Armory.

A large number of local fans were present at the match.

A large number of Columbus fans are expected to attend the match in this city.

BURNING PAPER DANGEROUS WORK

Fire Chief Mayo has issued a warning against the burning of paper close to buildings in alleyways, and against burning paper or other rubbish in the alleys during a dry, or windy period.

Such practice, he points out, very frequently results in setting fire to barns, garages, or other buildings along the alleys, and when it is necessary to burn paper and rubbish out of doors, he recommends that it be disposed of some other way than in the alleys.

NO GAME SUNDAY AT LOCAL PARK

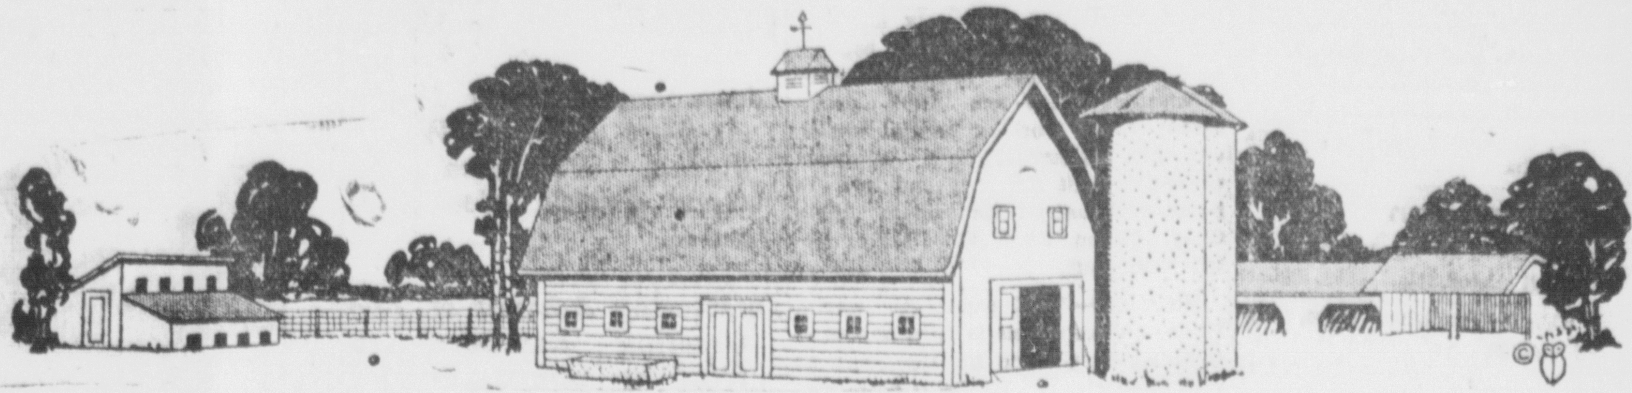

In view of the fact that the Washington Athletics will go to Wilmington next Sunday instead of to Middletown, as scheduled some time ago, there will be no game at Sunnyside Park between the Leach All-Stars and the Mt. Sterling team. A large majority of the fans and the players will go to Wilmington.

The All-Stars have no other games on their schedule at the present time.

STORES ROBBED

The Carl Hewitt and Raymond Price stores in Sedalia, were burglarized a night or two ago, and money and goods stolen from each store. Home talent is suspected.

SOME BARN, EH?

There is not a farmer in the whole country who would not be proud to own a barn like this one. During the past few years the farmers, if they have been successful at all, have been very prosperous. Hay, grain, livestock and all produce have brought better prices than ever before, and as a result the farmer will have better homes, better equipment and better barns.

This particular barn has been designed to meet the needs of the average farmer. It is well arranged and well lighted and exceptional thought has been given to the sanitary features.

The construction throughout is of the best, although the specifications may be made to include lighter timbers if a less expensive structure is desired.

LOCAL MAN GIVES RODMAN FORMAL WELCOME

Lieutenant Clarence Boyer At Fort Lawton, Washington, Delegated to Greet Pacific Fleet Admiral.

Interesting Account of The Greeting Extended to Him by Commander of Great Battleship.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Boyer of this city have just received, from their son Lieutenant Clarence Boyer, now stationed at Fort Lawton Washington the following very interesting letter relative to the arrival of the Pacific Fleet at its base on the far off Pacific coast.

Fort Lawton, Wash., September 16,

Dearest Folks: Am busy man nowadays. Am sending you a few pictures of the fleet as it looked passing the Fort. (We are on "Magnolia Bluff"). It sure is a wonderful fleet.

I made a visit to Admiral Rodman, as required by Army Regulations, par. No. 407 (will send you a notice that resulted in the Seattle Times). He sure is grand officer. I took a look all over the ship—"New Mexico"—Super-dreadnaught—and had a fine time. I'm preserving the cigarette he gave me as a souvenir. It sure is a wonderful battleship. They had morning parade and drill exercises while I was on board. Can tell you more later. With love,

CLARENCE.

The article in the Seattle Times to which young Boyer refers and which reports his interview with Admiral Rodman is as follows:

Lieut. Clarence L. Boyer, adjutant at Fort Lawton, yesterday morning received an insight into the ways of Admiral Hugh Rodman, commander of the Pacific Fleet.

Standing at attention he saluted and said, "Sir, I have the pleasure of bringing the compliments of my commanding officer to you."

"Sit down," interrupted the admiral. "We get seated in a chair and we can talk it over. Have a cigar first."

Lieutenant Boyer then delivered his message, which was an invitation to the admiral to visit the fort.

"I'd love to do it, if I had the time," said the admiral, informally. "Thank your commanding officer for me."

Lieutenant Boyer remained aboard the New Mexico for some time after his interview with the admiral, as his guest.

Lieutenant Boyer has been serving as Adjutant at Fort Lawton for two years last past. At the outbreak of the war with Mexico he was a student at Ohio State University and joined the Volunteer Army at that time.

Later on after his return from Mexico he became a member of the regular army and has served continuously from that time. Requests to his discharge having not been granted so that he could return home and re-enter Ohio State, he is going to enter the Washington University.

Mr. John W. Boyer the father of Lieutenant Clarence Boyer in night miller at The Washington Milling Company on South Fayette street.

PYTHIAN SISTERS.

STARTS OUT TO RAISE FIVE MILLIONS FOR DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN EXPENSES

William D. Jamieson, director of finance for the Democratic national committee, has set himself the task of raising a minimum of $5,000,000 from 1,000,000 people to run the party's 1920 campaign. In 1912 between seventy-five and eighty-five thousand people subscribed $1,100,000. In the 1916 campaign 300,000 people gave two millions and a half.

DAY OF ATONEMENT ON OCTOBER 4

On Saturday October 4th, the Jews will observe the Day of Atonement.

This Holy Day is the most sacred and important in the Jewish calendar and is kept solemnly as a day of fasting and prayer by all the Jews of the world. It begins at sunset, Friday night, October 3rd and ends with sunset on the following day.

The Day of Atonement brings home with great emphasis and force the doctrine of sin and repentance, which is the basic principle of all religions. Just as the birthday of the altruistic spirit marked the point of departure between man and animal, so the development of the doctrine of repentance marks a turning point in the history of the human race. Judaism has canonized this moment of history.

which saw the birth of new hope for human progress.

Judaism holds that man has the God-given power of repentance. Fate plays no part in man's life. The Day of Atonement gives eloquent testimony to this fundamental doctrine of Judaism, since it visualizes the fact that the doors of repentance are ever open.

The Day of Atonement is the supreme holy day of the Jewish religion. It touches the heart of all the Jews and exercises upon them an influence unapproached by any of their other holy days. It is, above all others, the one day on which they lay aside their earthly affairs in order to spend a day of devotion in the house of God amid fasting and prayer.—Exchange.

ATHLETICS LOSE PITCHER BLACK

Big Jim Black, who pitched the Washington Athletics to a decisive victory over the Wilmington Clintons on Sunday, will not be available for the game at Wilmington next Sunday.

He has announced his intentions of going to Florida to spend winter in order to care for his large interests in the Florida orange groves. Black and his family leave for the peninsula state this week.

The big hurler recently finished a most successful season in Michigan where he won 16 out of 18 games pitched.

A successor for Black has not been named for next Sunday when the fourth game of the season will be played.

DRY GOODS MARKETS.

New York, September 23.—Cotton yarns today were easier, with print cloth and convertible markets more active. Burlaps were steadier in the heavier weights, with prices tending higher. Dress goods were steady, fancy goods being in good demand.

THOUGHT ONE CLEAN SHIRT ALL HE NEEDED

"Ten years ago I was reduced to a mere shadow. I was yellow as a gold piece and would often be doubled up with most excruciating pains in my stomach. Physicians could only relieve me with morphine. I was advised to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it helped me at once. What is more, I have been well ever since. A friend said he thought one more clean shirt all I would ever wear." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.
